

Open Game Commission Meeting

THE FIRST meeting of the State Game Commission open to the public will be held Friday, Jan. 15.

The meeting will open at 10 a.m. in the Governor's Room of the Penn Harris Hotel, here.

Visitors will not be permitted to participate in the deliberations, and will be expected to remain silent.

Officers for the coming year will be elected by the Commission. The agenda for the meeting includes acquisition of land, hunting license restorations and revocations and other routine business items.

This open door format follows a policy adopted by the State Fish Commission several years ago.

NOTE: The Pennsylvania Fish Commission understood that since their meetings concern public business, the public should be invited to observe and scrutinize. The Pennsylvania Game Commission held no discussion on a pumped-storage hydroelectric plant in Stony Creek Valley. Negotiations were behind closed doors.
